WILL SETTLE SITE QUESTION ON FRIDAY

At a meeting called for Friday evening, the matter of a site for the proposed new Y. M. C. A. building will be decided upon, it being presumed that the property opposite the present building on Alakea will be chosen for the building place. The question of making a definite offer for the site and building of the Honolulu Library will also be taken up and possibly decided. It is known that the Y. M. C. A. people are favorable to an exchange of sites and buildings, and it is supposed that the library owners will be found equally willing, but as yet no definite proposition has been made by either side.

At Friday's meeting a number of prominent business men will be present, these having been invited to come and give the Y. M. C. A. fund-handlers the benefit of their experience and advice.

MINE HORROR.

(By United Press.)

CHERRY, Ill., November 22.—Thirty-seven more bodies were today brought from the death chambers of the coal mines here, in which fire wrought havoc for days, having broken out on November 13. There are about one hundred and fifty men still to be accounted for. Over sixty bodies have so far been recovered and not more than a fourth of those known to have been in the mines when the fire broke out, have been brought to the surface alive, and many of the rescued are not expected to live.

DISCUSSING BUDGET.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, November 22.—The debate on the budget was begun in the house of lords today. The action of the upper house is awaited with the keenest interest and the progress of their discussion is followed in every detail throughout the country.

HAS FOUND THE HIGHEST WATERFALL

OSHKOSH, Wisconsin, November 3.—Edward Balch Barr, the Oshkosh citizen and explorer who has just returned from Labrador, reports the discovery in the wilderness of that country of a huge waterfall, which he is confident will prove the highest waterfall on the Western hemisphere.

The discovery was made while making a forced canoe trip up the Caster river. The fall is said to be larger than Grand falls in Labrador, which is 368 feet high.

(By Associated Press.)

EMERYVILLE, California, November 22.—The first arrests for betting in the defiance of the new law against betting and will probably serve as a test case.
